

Berlin Crisis 50 Year Commemoration Update

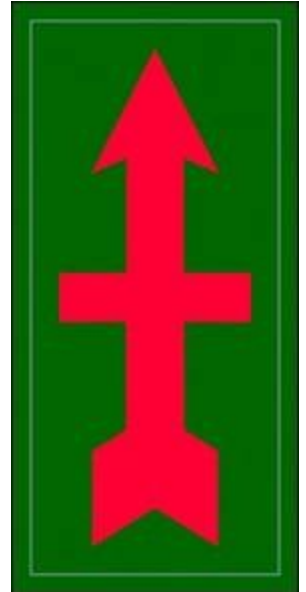

Event Schedule:

10:30am	-Gates Open*, Open House begins
12pm—1pm	-Refreshments, Open House
1pm—2:30pm	-Official Ceremony and Group Photo
2:30pm—4pm	-Open House continues, Social Time
4pm	-Event ends

Please do not arrive earlier than 1030am.

Activities and Events:

- Historical displays at the Volk Museum and the 32nd Brigade Red Arrow Headquarters.
- Video footage from the mobilization in the 32nd Brigade HQ Auditorium (veterans can sign up to receive a digital copy).
- Modern equipment displays from the 32nd Brigade and its subordinate units.
- Veterans are encouraged to bring their own scrapbooks and memorabilia. A conference room will be set aside in the 32nd Brigade HQ to display your items.

Notes:

- If you have not responded, please RSVP as soon as possible to the Project Officer, MAJ Kurt Geilfuss. You can reach him at this email address:
32ndBerlinCrisis@gmail.com
- You can also call him at 608-242-3895. Be sure to let him know your name, the unit you mobilized with, and if you are bringing a guest.
- The ceremony, group photo, and equipment displays will be outdoors, please dress appropriately for the weather.
- Burgers, brats, soft drinks, hot coffee will be provided free of charge.

Directions:

The 32nd Brigade Headquarters is located on Camp Williams/Volk Field. Camp Williams is about 2 hours northwest of Madison along Interstate 90/94, and about 1 hour east of La Crosse along Interstate 90.

Take the County Road C exit to Camp Douglas/Volk Field from I-90/94.

